ORDER:-

In the letter read above, the Registrar (Management), High Court of Andhra Pradesh, has stated that the Chief Engineer (R&B) Buildings, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad vide letter dated:16.7.2012 while forwarding the proforma estimates along with building plan for construction of Junior Civil Judge Court Building at Devarakonda in Nalgonda District, has stated that, the Superintending Engineer (R&B), Nalgonda has prepared and submitted the proforma estimates for the above said construction for an amount of Rs.570.00 lakhs. Further, the Superintending Engineer (R&B) Nalgonda has reported that the existing court building was constructed in the year 1931 and the roof of the building and walls became structurally weak due to leaking of water in rainy season and the life of the building is over and the entire structure of the building is weak; that it is not suitable to run the court in the existing building, and reported that the Junior Civil Judge, Devarakonda has also represented for construction of new court building and requested the High Court to accord administrative sanction for the above said work.

2. The Registrar (Management), High Court of Andhra Pradesh, has further stated that, on a reference made by the High Court, the District Judge, Nalgonda in his letter dated:23.1.2013, while forwarding the detailed estimates for Rs.440.00 lakhs for the construction of Junior Civil Judge's Court Building at Devarakonda has stated that the proposed new court building is to be constructed in place of old building, which is in dilapidated condition which was constructed in the year 1931 i.e. 81 years ago with back Madras Arch roof, that the building became structurally weak due to leakage of water in rainy season and thus became unsafe for staff and valuable documents due to dampness of the entire building and as such the court building has out lived its life and it is not suitable to run the court in the existing building. The District Judge, further submitted that the Executive Engineer, Roads and Buildings, Miryalaguda through letter dated:29.10.2012 has furnished estimates for construction of new court building and informed that the Junior Civil Judges Court Building at Devarakonda was constructed in the year 1931; that the roof and walls of the court building have become structurally weak due to leakage of water in rainy seasons; that it as become unsafe for the staff and valuable documents due to dampness of the entire building. Stating thus, the District Judge, Nalgonda has requested the high Court to accord administrative sanction for construction of building for Junior Civil Judge's Court in the place of old building at Devarakonda.

3. The Registrar (Management), High Court of Andhra Pradesh, has therefore requested the Government to issue necessary orders duly according administrative sanction for Rs.440.00 lakhs for construction of Junior Civil Judges court building at Devarakonda, Nalgonda District in the place of old dilapidated building at Devarakonda.

4. Government after careful examination of the proposal, hereby accord administrative sanction for Rs.440,00,000/- for construction of Junior Civil Judges court building at Devarakonda, Nalgonda District in the place of old dilapidated building at Devarakonda.
